Q71: How do Section 52 of the TPA (Lis Pendens) and Order XXXIX of the CPC (Injunctions) complement each other during property litigation?

- Answer Details: They act as complementary statutory shields. While Section 52 of the TPA automatically voids or subordinates any external title creation during pendency, it does not stop physical damage or unauthorized construction. Therefore, litigants must seek an active injunction under Order XXXIX, Rules 1 & 2 of the CPC to structurally halt physical modifications or destruction of the property during the suit.

Q72: Compare the limitation calculation for recovering possession under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act versus a standard title recovery suit.

Q74: How does the Penal Code's criminal breach of trust (Section 405) intersect with civil liability under the Contract Act?

- Answer Details: A single act can generate both civil and criminal actions. If an agent misappropriates property entrusted to him, he breaches a civil contract, making him liable for damages/accounting under the Contract Act, 1872. Simultaneously, because dishonest misappropriation contains mens rea, it satisfies the definition of Criminal Breach of Trust under Section 405 of the Penal Code, rendering him liable to imprisonment under Section 406.

Q75: How does Section 138 of the NI Act interact with civil suits for money recovery under the CPC?

- Answer Details: A criminal prosecution under Section 138 of the NI Act for a dishonored cheque is an independent punitive action aimed at penalizing the offender. If the duration is not specifically mentioned, it defaults to a statutory limit of 5 years.

Section 5: The Court Fees Act, 1870

Q44: What is the procedure if a court finds that the net profits or market value of a suit property has been wrongly estimated under Section 9?

Transitioning to Focus Areas: Deep Dive Multi-Act Scenarios

Q71: How do Section 52 of the TPA (Lis Pendens) and Order XXXIX of the CPC (Injunctions) complement each other during property litigation?

- Answer Details: They act as complementary statutory shields. While Section 52 of the TPA automatically voids or subordinates any external title creation during pendency, it does not stop physical damage or unauthorized construction. Therefore, litigants must seek an active injunction under Order XXXIX, Rules 1 & 2 of the CPC to structurally halt physical modifications or destruction of the property during the suit.

Q72: Compare the limitation calculation for recovering possession under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act versus a standard title recovery suit.

- Answer Details: A suit under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act is a summary procedure requiring filing within 6 months of dispossession, and title is irrelevant. Conversely, a regular suit for recovery of possession based on proprietary title falls under the Limitation Act's schedule, allowing a 12-year limitation window, wherein full title ownership must be judicially established.

Q73: What is the interplay between Section 17 of the Registration Act and Section 49 of the same Act regarding unregistered sales?

- Answer Details: While Section 17 declares that a conveyance deed over 100 Taka must be compulsorily registered, Section 49 acts as the enforcement mechanism. It dictates that an unregistered document required to be registered shall not affect any immovable property comprised therein, nor be received as evidence of any transaction affecting such property, except as evidence of part-performance of a contract in a suit for specific performance.

Q74: How does the Penal Code's criminal breach of trust (Section 405) intersect with civil liability under the Contract Act?

- Answer Details: A single act can generate both civil and criminal actions. If an agent misappropriates property entrusted to him, he breaches a civil contract, making him liable for damages/accounting under the Contract Act, 1872. Simultaneously, because dishonest misappropriation contains mens rea, it satisfies the definition of Criminal Breach of Trust under Section 405 of the Penal Code, rendering him liable to imprisonment under Section 406.

Q75: How does Section 138 of the NI Act interact with civil suits for money recovery under the CPC?

- Answer Details: A criminal prosecution under Section 138 of the NI Act for a dishonored cheque is an independent punitive action aimed at penalizing the offender. It does not bar the payee from concurrently filing a summary civil suit under Order XXXVII of the CPC for the recovery of the debt amount using the same dishonored cheque as primary documentary evidence.

Section 1: The Civil Courts Act, 1887

Q71: Can a District Judge invest an Assistant Judge with small cause court powers under this Act?

- Answer Details: Under Section 25 of the Civil Courts Act, 1887, the Government, in consultation with the High Court Division, may invest any Civil Court Judge (including Assistant Judges or Senior Assistant Judges) with the jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court for the trial of suits cognizable by such courts up to a specified pecuniary limit. This allows for a more rapid, summary trial of low-value commercial or debt matters.

Q72: What are the statutory rules regarding the sealing of Civil Court processes under Section 15?

- Answer Details: Section 15 dictates that every Civil Court must use a seal of a form and dimensions prescribed by the Government. Every summons, warrant, order, mandate, or process issued by a Civil Court must be signed by the presiding Judge (or an authorized officer) and must explicitly bear the official seal of that specific court to carry legal force.

Section 2: The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (CPC)

Q73: What is a "Mesne Profit" under Section 2(12) of the CPC, and how is it calculated?

- Exclusion: It explicitly excludes profits due to improvements made by the person in wrongful possession. It is claimed when a plaintiff sues for the recovery of immovable property from an unauthorized occupant.

Q74: Explain the summary procedure under Order XXXVII of the CPC and the conditions for a defendant to appear.

- Answer Details: Order XXXVII provides a fast-track summary procedure for suits upon bills of exchange, hundis, or promissory notes (and extended to specific debt-recovery contracts).
- Leave to Defend: Unlike ordinary suits, the defendant cannot file a written statement as a matter of right. They must enter an appearance within 10 days of service of the summons and apply for "leave to defend." The court will grant leave only if the defendant's affidavit discloses a bona fide or triable defense.

Q75: What is the purpose of a "Garnishee Order" under Order XXI of the CPC?

- Answer Details: A Garnishee Order is an execution mechanism under Order XXI, Rules 46A to 46I. It allows a decree-holder to attach and recover monetary sums owed to the judgment-debtor by a third party (the "Garnishee"). The court orders the Garnishee directly to pay the debt into court instead of paying it to the judgment-debtor.

Section 3: The Contract Act, 1872

Q76: Distinguish between a Contract of Indemnity (Section 124) and a Contract of Guarantee (Section 126).

- Answer Details:
 - Indemnity (Section 124): A contract by which one party promises to save the other from loss caused to him by the conduct of the promisor himself, or by the conduct of any other person. There are only two parties (indemnifier and indemnified). Liability is primary.
 - Guarantee (Section 126): A contract to perform the promise, or discharge the liability, of a third person in case of his default. There are three parties (principal debtor, creditor, and surety). Liability of the surety is secondary and collateral to that of the principal debtor.

Q77: Explain the doctrine of frustration of contract under Section 56 of the Contract Act.

- Answer Details: Section 56 establishes that an agreement to do an act impossible in itself is void. It further states that a contract to do an act which, after the contract is made, becomes impossible, or, by reason of some event which the promisor could not prevent, unlawful, becomes void when the act becomes impossible or unlawful. This covers subsequent, unforeseen interventions that destroy the core commercial foundation of the agreement.

Section 4: The Copyright Act, 2023

Q78: What civil remedies are available to a copyright owner for infringement under the Copyright Act, 2023?

- Answer Details: The owner of a copyright can initiate a civil lawsuit in the Court of the District Judge. The available statutory remedies include:
 1. Injunctions (to restrain the continuation of the infringing activity).
 2. Damages or an account of profits made by the infringer.
 3. Delivery up of all infringing copies and plates used for manufacturing the unauthorized copies.

Section 5: The Court Fees Act, 1870

Q79: What is the procedure for a refund of court fees on a plaint rejected for undervaluation under Section 13?

- Answer Details: Under Section 13, if an appellate court remands a case for retrial, or if a plaint was rejected by a subordinate court and subsequently the appellate court reverses that decision, the appellant is entitled to receive a certificate from the court authorizing a refund of the court fee paid on the memorandum of appeal or plaint, preventing double taxation for administrative corrections.

Q80: What are the statutory powers of a Court to issue a Proclamation and Attachment for an absconding person under Sections 87 and 88?

- Answer Details:
 - Section 87 (Proclamation): If a Court has reason to believe that any person against whom a warrant has been issued has absconded, it may publish a written proclamation requiring him to appear at a specified place and time not less than 30 days from the date of publishing.

Q81: Explain the statutory provisions for regular bail under Section 497 of the CrPC for non-bailable offences.

- Answer Details: Section 497 dictates that a person accused of a non-bailable offence may be released on bail, except if there appear reasonable grounds for believing that he has been guilty of an offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life.
- Exceptions for Release: The section contains an explicit proviso stating that the Court may direct that any person under the age of sixteen years, or any woman, or any sick or infirm person be released on bail even if the offence carries capital punishment.

Q82: What is the procedure for an "Inquest Report" under Section 174 of the CrPC?

- Answer Details: Under Section 174, an officer in charge of a police station or an authorized Magistrate, upon receiving information that a person has committed suicide, or has been killed by another, or by an animal, machinery, or accident, must immediately proceed to the place where the body is and make an investigation into the apparent cause of death. - Rule of Relevancy (Section 21): Admissions are relevant and can generally be proved against the person who makes them or his representative in interest. They cannot be proved by or on behalf of the person who makes them, except under specific statutory exceptions (e.g., if it is of such a nature that, if the person making it were dead, it would be admissible as a dying declaration).

Q84: What is the difference between "Presumption of Fact" (May Presume) and "Presumption of Law" (Shall Presume) under Section 4?

- Answer Details:
 - May Presume: Whenever it is provided by the Act that the Court may presume a fact, it may either regard such fact as proved, unless and until it is disproved, or may call for proof of it (discretionary).
 - Shall Presume: Whenever it is directed by the Act that the Court shall presume a fact, it shall regard such fact as proved, unless and until it is disproved (mandatory; the court has no discretion to call for proof initially, but the opposing party can lead evidence to rebut it).

Section 8: The Bangladesh Labour Act, 2006

Q85: What are the statutory requirements for the termination of employment by a worker via resignation under Section 27?

- Notice Period: The worker must give 60 days' notice if they are a permanent monthly-rated worker, or 30 days' notice if they are a piece-rated/hourly worker. If a worker resigns without notice, they must pay the employer wages in lieu of the notice period. Permanent workers with at least 5 years of service are entitled to compensation/gratuity upon resignation.

Q86: What is the effect of "Fraud" or concealment on the calculation of a limitation period under Section 18?

- Answer Details: Section 18 establishes that where a person having a right to institute a suit or make an application has been kept from the knowledge of such right or title by fraud, or where any document necessary to establish such right has been fraudulently concealed, the time for computing limitation shall be reckoned from the time when the fraud first became known to the affected party, or when they first had the means of producing the concealed document.

Section 10: The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (NI Act)

Q87: Explain the concept of a "Holder in Due Course" under Section 9 of the NI Act.

- Answer Details: Section 9 defines a "Holder in Due Course" as any person who for consideration becomes the possessor of a promissory note, bill of exchange, or cheque, if payable to bearer, or the payee or indorsee thereof, before the amount mentioned in Q88: What is the process of execution available to a Certificate-officer to realize public arrears under Section 22?

- Answer Details: Under Section 22, if a certificate is not satisfied after notice and the resolution of any objections, the Certificate-officer may execute it by:

 3. Arrest of the certificate-debtor and detention in civil prison.

Section 12: The Penal Code, 1860

Q89: What are the boundaries and limitations of the Right of Private Defence of the body under Sections 96 to 102?

- Answer Details: Section 96 states nothing is an offence which is done in the exercise of the right of private defence.
- Limitations (Section 99): There is no right of private defence against an act which does not reasonably cause the apprehension of death or of grievous hurt, if done by a public servant acting in good faith. Crucially, the right in no case extends to the inflicting of more harm than it is necessary to inflict for the purpose of defence (proportionality principle).

Section 13: The Registration Act, 1908

Q90: What is the consequence of non-registration of documents required to be registered under Section 49?

Section 14: The Specific Relief Act, 1877

Q91: Under what conditions can a Court order the "Rectification of Instruments" under Section 31?

- Answer Details: Section 31 states that when, through fraud or a mutual mistake of the parties, a contract or other instrument in writing does not express their real intention, either party or their representative in interest may institute a suit to have the instrument rectified. The Court must be satisfied that the instrument failed to show the true intent without overriding the rights acquired by third parties in good faith.

Section 15: The Suits Valuation Act, 1887

Q92: Power of the Government to make rules determining the value of land for jurisdictional purposes under Section 3.

- Answer Details: Under Section 3, the Government may make rules for determining the value of land for the purposes of jurisdiction in suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 1870, Section 7, paragraphs v and vi, and paragraph x, clause (d). This creates an objective state standard for valuation separate from fluctuating local market speculations.

Section 16: The Income Tax Act, 2023

Q93: What are the penal consequences for intentional non-filing of income tax returns under the current Income Tax Act?

- Answer Details: Under the current Income Tax Act, 2023 framework, an assessee who fails to file their income tax return within the statutory "Tax Day" deadline without a valid extension is subject to a mandatory financial penalty. - Answer Details: The Land Reforms Act, 2023, takes a strict stance on Benami land transfers (holding land in the name of another to mask true ownership). Any land held Benami is subject to direct statutory confiscation by the state without any compensation, and the real beneficial owner as well as the apparent titleholder face additional regulatory penalties and criminal prosecution under state asset tracking guidelines.

- Answer Details: Under Section 3, if a party applies for a sale of property under Section 2, any other shareholder may apply to the court for leave to buy at a valuation the share of the party asking for the sale. - Answer Details: Under Section 2(v), a wife can sue for dissolution if the husband was impotent at the time of the marriage and continues to be so.

- Procedural Rule: Before passing a decree on this ground, the Court must, on application by the husband, make an order requiring the husband to satisfy the Court within a period of 1 year from the date of such order that he has ceased to be impotent. Q103: Does this Act apply to a Hindu who dies leaving behind a Will (Testate Succession)?

- Answer Details: No. This Act specifically governs and amends the rules of intestate succession (where a person dies without leaving a valid Will). Section 27: The Hindu Married Women's Right to Separate Residence and Maintenance Act, 1946

Q104: Can a court reduce or alter the maintenance amount once fixed under this Act?

Multi-Act Intersections & Practical Litigation Scenarios

Q106: Detail the procedural friction between Section 138 of the NI Act and the Limitation Act, 1908.

- Answer Details: Section 138 of the NI Act is a self-contained code containing strict, non-extendable statutory limitation windows for sending notices (30 days) and filing complaints (1 month from cause of action). The general provisions for condonation of delay under Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1908, cannot be routinely applied to override a complete failure to meet the NI Act's internal timelines.

Q107: How does a plaintiff balance Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act with Section 11 of the CPC?

- Answer Details: A suit under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act only decides immediate possession, not ultimate ownership title. Therefore, a decree under Section 9 does not operate as Res Judicata under Section 11 of the CPC against a subsequent, regular title-suit filed by either party to conclusively establish ownership and recover permanent possession.

Q108: What is the impact of an unstamped document (Stamp Act, Section 35) when establishing a contract under Section 10 of the Contract Act?

- Answer Details: An unstamped document does not invalidate the underlying contract's existence under Section 10 of the Contract Act, but Section 35 of the Stamp Act completely bars its admissibility as evidence in court. The contract remains valid but procedurally unenforceable until the document is "impounded" and the deficit stamp duty along with the statutory penalty is paid.

Q109: Explain the interaction between Section 54 of the TPA and Section 17 of the Registration Act in Bangladesh.

- Answer Details: They form an ironclad rule for land transactions. While Section 54 of the TPA sets the substantive requirement that sales must be executed via written, registered instruments, Section 17 of the Registration Act provides the formal procedural mandate making registration compulsory. Without their concurrent satisfaction, no real property title passes to a buyer.

Q110: How do Section 144 orders under the CrPC assist in maintaining status quo during pending civil land suits under the CPC?

- Answer Details: When a civil court takes time to process an injunction application under Order XXXIX of the CPC, local parties may attempt to forcefully alter the land's physical layout, risking a breach of peace. Litigants frequently use Section 144 of the CrPC as an emergency measure through law enforcement to halt all entry or work on the disputed land until the civil court issues its formal order.

Q111: Discuss how Section 34 of the Penal Code is proved using circumstantial evidence under the Evidence Act.

- Answer Details: "Common intention" under Section 34 of the Penal Code is a mental state and is rarely proven by direct documentation. Under the Evidence Act, 1872, it is established through conduct, surrounding circumstances, and subsequent actions of the co-accused (relevant under Sections 6 and 8), proving a prior meeting of minds or spontaneous alignment at the crime scene.

Q112: How do the pre-emption rights under Section 96 of the SAT Act and Section 24 of the NAT Act differ regarding agricultural vs. non-agricultural land?

- Answer Details: The fundamental difference lies in the subject matter and financial rules. Section 96 of the SAT Act applies strictly to agricultural land and requires a 25% statutory compensation deposit. Conversely, Section 24 of the NAT Act applies to non-agricultural land situated in urban/suburban zones and requires a 10% compensation deposit.

Q113: What happens if a worker files a claim under Section 27 of the Labour Act but the contract violates Section 10 of the Contract Act?

- Answer Details: If an employment contract is void ab initio under Section 10 of the Contract Act (e.g., signed by a minor or for an illegal object), the Labour Court will reject the claim. A worker must have a legally valid, lawful employment status under general contract principles to claim the statutory benefits or protections of the Bangladesh Labour Act, 2006.

Q114: Contrast the evidentiary value of a confession under Section 164 of the CrPC with an admission under Section 17 of the Evidence Act.

- Answer Details: A Section 164 confession is a formal statement of guilt made by an accused before a Magistrate under judicial warnings, carrying the highest weight and capable of forming the sole basis of conviction if voluntary. An admission under Section 17 of the Evidence Act is a broader civil or criminal statement regarding specific facts, which acts as an estoppel but is not conclusive proof by itself.

Q115: How does a Partition Suit under the Partition Act, 1893, interact with the Court Fees Act, 1870, for fixed vs. ad valorem fees?

- Answer Details: If the plaintiff is in joint physical possession of the family property and merely seeks a formal separation of shares, they pay a fixed court fee under Schedule II of the Court Fees Act. However, if they have been completely excluded or dispossessed from the property by other co-sharers, they must pay an ad valorem court fee based on the market value of their specific share to recover possession.

Section 1: The Civil Courts Act, 1887

Q116: What are the statutory limits regarding the alteration of local limits of jurisdiction under Section 13?

- Answer Details: Under Section 13, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix and alter the local limits of the jurisdiction of any Civil Court. Where the local limits of a court's jurisdiction are altered, any pending suit or proceeding which would have been triable in that court remains unaffected unless the notification or a specific directive from the High Court Division expressly transfers those active cases to another court.

Q117: What is the provision for the investment of a District or Joint District Judge with special powers under Section 24?

- Answer Details: Section 24 allows the Government, upon the recommendation of the High Court Division, to invest any District Judge or Joint District Judge with the power to hear appeals from decrees or orders of Senior Assistant Judges or Assistant Judges. This is an administrative mechanism designed to alleviate case backlogs by distributing appellate workloads.

Q118: Explain the statutory principle of "Inherent Powers of the Court" under Section 151 of the CPC.

- Answer Details: Section 151 explicitly preserves the inherent powers of a Civil Court. It states that nothing in the CPC shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. It is an extraordinary residual power used only when no specific, explicit provision exists in the Code to address a particular procedural anomaly.

Q119: What are the mandatory rules for serving a summons on a corporate entity under Order XXIX, Rule 2?

- Answer Details: Under Order XXIX, Rule 2, where the suit is against a corporation, the summons may be served:

Q120: Under what circumstances can an appellate court accept "Additional Evidence" under Order XLI, Rule 27?

- Answer Details: Order XLI, Rule 27 restricts the production of additional evidence in an appellate court. It is permissible only if:
 1. The court from whose decree the appeal is preferred refused to admit evidence which ought to have been admitted; or
 2. The appellate court requires any document to be produced or any witness to be examined to enable it to pronounce judgment; or
 3. For any other substantial cause.

Section 3: The Contract Act, 1872

Q121: What is the status of an agreement in restraint of trade under Section 27, and what is its sole exception?

- Answer Details: Section 27 states that every agreement by which any person is restrained from exercising a lawful profession, trade, or business of any kind is to that extent void.
- Statutory Exception: The only exception is the sale of the goodwill of a business, where a buyer may agree with the seller to refrain from carrying on a similar business within specified local limits, provided such limits appear reasonable to the Court.

Q122: Explain the principle of "Agency by Ratification" and its limits under Sections 196 and 197.

- Answer Details: Under Section 196, where acts are done by one person on behalf of another but without his knowledge or authority, the person may elect to ratify or to disown such acts. If he ratifies them, the same effects will follow as if they had been performed by his prior authority. Under Section 197, ratification may be expressed or implied by conduct, but it cannot validly validate an act that would injure a third party or violate public policy.

Section 4: The Copyright Act, 2023

Q123: What constitutes the statutory definition of "Fair Dealing" under the Copyright Act, 2023?

- Answer Details: The Act provides that certain acts do not constitute an infringement of copyright. "Fair Dealing" includes the reproduction or adaptation of a work strictly for:
 1. Private or personal use, including research or educational study.
 2. Criticism, review, or news reporting in newspapers, magazines, or broadcasting media, provided a proper citation or acknowledgment of the original author is explicitly made.

Section 5: The Court Fees Act, 1870

Q124: How are court fees determined for a suit seeking a declaratory decree with consequential relief under Section 7(iv)(c)?

- Answer Details: Under Section 7(iv)(c), in suits to obtain a declaratory decree or order where consequential relief is prayed, the plaintiff must state the amount at which he values the relief sought. The court fee is calculated ad valorem based on this stated valuation. However, under the Suits Valuation Act, this valuation must align with the actual economic or market value of the subject matter to prevent arbitrary undervaluation.

Section 6: The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (CrPC)

Q125: What is the procedure for a Magistrate to take "Cognizance of an Offence" under Section 190 of the CrPC?

- Answer Details: Under Section 190, any Metropolitan Magistrate, District Magistrate, or Magistrate of the first class may take cognizance of any offence:

 3. Upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge or suspicion that such offence has been committed.
